

January 29th, 1925
Tbilisi

GEORGIAN THEATRE MANIFESTO

From the private archive of writer P. Ireteli

No. 1

The old theatre in ruins...
November 25th... Georgian theatre at the auction... winning is ours...
Physiological feelings in the wrinkles of history...
Pagan priests' roars of laughter and sorrow on a leprous baldachin towards the pantheon...
Eloquent speakers' catastrophe in tragedies...
Old dramaturgy with a hairless bald head...
Arshin – Mal – Alan's guard with a sack over the abominable bent back ---- from spring through autumn...
Old-aged buffaloes on tour on Rustaveli Avenue...
Georgian theatre floating over the sludgy swamp...
Password: DURUJI!!!
Centaur rushing from the north...
Georgian theatre in the bonds of new fire...
DURUJI – leftist... November the 25th...
Festive call on a victorious road...

Artist - dancing...
Artist - crazy...
Artist - fiery...
Artist - disturbance...
Artist - frowning...
Artist - on a bristled-up steed...
Artist - impertinent...
Artist - self-opinionated...
Centaur in an international carnival with tigers...
Coralline sun...

DURUJI!

Rustaveli Theatre,
18 January, 1924
Tiflis